

Symposium 2022 for Danmarks internationale kultursamarbejde

Der vil blive serveret morgenkaffe og te fra kl. 9:00, hvor I skal være velkomne til at netværke. Programmet går i gang kl 10:00, og der vil blive serveret en stående frokost midt på dagen.

Tid:

Torsdag den 1. september 2022, kl 9:00-15:30 (CEST)

Sted:

Dronningesalen, Den Sorte Diamant, Søren Kierkegaards Pl. 1, 1221 København K

Tjek ind:

Der vil være en indtjekningskranke, hvor I vil få udleveret jeres navneskilt, et program for dagen og oversættelsesudstyr.

Program:

9:00-10:00	- Indtjekning og kaffe -
	Velkomst
10:00-10:15	Styregruppen byder velkommen og introducerer til dagen og den strategiske ramme for Danmarks internationale kultursamarbejde
	Bæredygtighed og den grønne omstilling
10:15-10:45	Keynote af Alison Tickell, director, Julie's Bicycle (UK) (https://juliesbicycle.com/)
10:45-11:30	Panelsamtale om temaet ved Runa Sabroe (Wonderful Copenhagen), Thomas Rohde (Music Export Denmark), Gitta Malling (Statens Kunstfond) Natalie Mossin (International Union of Architects), modereret af Lise Bach Hansen (Det Kongelige Bibliotek)
11:30-12:45	- Frokost -
	Tech og den demokratiske samtale
12:45-13:15	Keynote af Johnny Haeusler, founder / director, Re:publica (DE) (https://re-publica.com/en)
13:15-14:00	Panelsamtale om temaet ved Søs Krogh Vikkelsøe (Click Festival), Christina Bilde (Roskilde Festival), Jakob Sabra (The Animation Workshop), Camilla Mordhorst (Dansk Kulturinstitut), modereret af Maiken Tandgaard Derno (Det danske generalkonsulat, New York)
	Land og by
14:00-14:30	Keynote af Jen Masengarb, executive director, American Institute of Architecture Chicago (USA) (https://www.aiachicago.org/)
14:30-15:15	Panelsamtale om temaet ved Kent Martinussen (Dansk Arkitektur Center) Lene Øster (Aarhus Kommune), Claus K. Jensen (Organisationen Danske Museer), modereret af Jesper Schou-Knudsen (Den danske ambassade, Tyskland)
15:15-15:30	- Tak for i dag -

Symposium 2022 for Denmark's international cultural collaboration

We will be serving coffee and tea from 9:00am, where you will be able to network. The program starts at 10:00am and we will serve a standing lunch around noon.

Time:

Thursday, September 1 2022, 9:00am - 3:30pm (CEST)

Location:

Dronningesalen, The Black Diamond, Søren Kierkegaards Pl. 1, 1221 København K

Check in:

Go to the check in counter and get your name tag, a program and an interpretation headset if requested.

Program:

9:00am -10:00am	- Check-in and coffee -
	Welcome
10:00am -10:15am	The steering committee makes an introduction to the day and the strategic framework for Denmark's international cultural collaboration
	Sustainability and the green transition
10:15am -10:45am	Keynote by Alison Tickell , director, Julie's Bicycle (UK) (https://juliesbicycle.com/)
10:45am -11:30am	Panel discussion on the theme by Runa Sabroe (Wonderful Copenhagen), Thomas Rohde (Music Export Denmark), Gitta Malling (Danish Arts Foundation) and Natalie Mossin (International Union of Architects) moderated by Lise Bach Hansen (The Royal Danish Library)
11:30am -12:45pm	- Lunch -
	Tech and the democratic dialogue
12:45pm - 1:15pm	Keynote by Johnny Haeusler , founder / director, Re:publica (DE) (https://re-publica.com/en)
1:15pm - 2:00pm	Panel discussion on the theme by Søs Krogh Vikkelsøe (Click Festival), Christina Bilde (Roskilde Festival), Jakob Sabra (The Animation Workshop) and Camilla Mordhorst (Danish Cultural Institut) moderated by Maiken Tandgaard Derno (Consulate General, New York, USA)
	Urban and rural areas
2:00pm - 2:30pm	Keynote by Jen Masengarb , executive director, American Institute of Architecture Chicago (USA) (https://www.aiachicago.org/)
2:30pm - 3:15pm	Panel discussion on the theme by Kent Martinussen (Danish Architecture Center) Lene Øster (Aarhus municipality), Claus K. Jensen (The Association of Danish Museums) and Trine Bang (Kulturmødet Mors) moderated by Jesper Schou-Knudsen (the Danish Embassy, Berlin, DE)
3:15pm - 3:30pm	- Thank you for today -